English-Language Ability Certificate

Submission of this "English-Language Ability Certificate" instead of "Document concerning English-Language Ability" mentioned in the Application Guidelines is permitted only if an applicant cannot submit any of the documents but can have his or her English language ability certified by a public agency (e.g., an embassy, etc.), university, or graduate school. If the above applies to you, get this English-Language Ability Certificate completed and submit it to certify your English-language ability.
