

Spring Semester Writing Program

One on one lessons : 40 minutes × 6 times (every other week)

This program is designed to help students improve their English writing skills in a one to one learning environment. We offer a variety of courses for students who are looking to improve their academic writing skills, prepare for studying abroad, aim for higher tests scores, or those who would like to join just to improve their general writing skills. All courses are free of charge!

	GW General Writing	PLUS Personalized Language Upgrade Series	PWT Prep for Writing Tests
Course Outline	This program consists of 7 modules, taught over the span of 3 years. Over the entire course, students should be able to develop their writing skills from sentence level writing to preparing to write academic full essays.	This course specializes in the areas of academic and business writing and is designed to meet each student's individual needs in their school life and job hunting activities. (ex: cover letter, resume, statement of purpose)	This course is designed to develop student's skills in writing for the TOEFL® and IELTS™ tests, focusing on test taking techniques and tackling sample questions.
Target Students	Students from beginner to advanced level. Students who wish to improve their general English writing skills, learn how to write paragraphs and essays, and those who are hoping to study abroad.	Intended for students who have a clear idea of the writing topic or area they wish to study. Students who wish to study writing in general should take General Writing.	Students who aim to improve their scores in the writing part of IELTS™, TOEFL® IBT and who have basic writing skills and knowledge of paragraph structure. (Only students who have taken IELTS™ or TOEFL® IBT before)
