Application Eligibility

Note Dual enrollment is prohibited at Toyo University Graduate Schools by the Toyo University Graduate School Academic Rules and Regulations. If you are enrolled as a full-time student at another university or graduate school (including undergraduate faculty or graduate school of Toyo University, or Japanese language school), you are required to graduate, complete, or withdraw by the time of admission to Toyo University Graduate Schools (provided that you have acquired the required degree for enrollment.)

1. Master's Program

Persons who fall under any of the following are eligible to apply for the Master's Program.

- (1) Persons who graduated from a university, or who are expected to graduate
- (2) Persons who have completed a 16-year program of school education in a foreign country, or who are expected to do so
- (3) Persons who have earned a degree equivalent to a bachelor's degree by having completed a program of at least three years at a foreign university, or who are expected to do so
- (4) Persons who have completed a specialized program (limited to programs of at least four years or that otherwise fulfill criteria prescribed by the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology) in an advanced vocational school designated separately by, and on or after a date stipulated by, the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology, or who are expected to do so
- (5) Persons designated by the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology (The Ministry of Education, Public Notice No.5 of 1953)
- (6) Persons who were enrolled at a university for three years or more and who have been recognized by Toyo University Graduate Schools as having earned the prescribed credits with excellent grades
- (7) Persons of age 22 or older by the time of admission who have been recognized by Toyo University Graduate Schools through individual admission qualification screening as having academic ability equal to or higher than that of university graduates*

*Since three-year universities (vocational colleges) do not confer a degree equivalent to a bachelor's degree, persons who do not have a background related to the research field (work experience, research history or academic background) are not able to apply for the preliminary screening of application eligibility.

2. Doctoral Program

Persons who fall under any of the following are eligible to apply for the Doctoral Program.

- (1) Persons who have a master's degree or a professional degree, or who are expected to earn one
- (2) Persons who have earned a degree equivalent to a master's degree or a professional degree in a foreign country, or who are expected to do so by the time of admission
- (3) Persons who have, in Japan, completed a program in an educational facility that is positioned in the school education system of a foreign country as having the program in a graduate school in that foreign country and that is designated separately by the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology, and who have earned a degree equivalent to a master's degree or a professional degree, or who are expected to do so by the time of admission
- (4) Persons designated by the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology (The Ministry of Education, Public Notice No.118 of 1989)
- (5) Persons of age 24 or older by the time of admission who have been recognized by Toyo University Graduate Schools through individual admission qualification screening as having academic ability equal to or higher than that of persons who have a master's degree or a professional degree

3. Application eligibility for persons with foreign nationality

- Persons with a status of residence of "Temporary Visitor" under the Immigration Control and Refugee Recognition Act may not take the February and March entrance examinations in the case of April admission, and the August entrance examination in the case of Fall admission.

4. Preliminary Screening

For persons who are willing to apply for the Master's Program or Doctoral Program and who do not fall under any of the application eligibility requirements below, but who have a background related to the research field (work experience, research history or academic background), please read "Preliminary Screening of Application Eligibility" on p. 7 carefully and complete the procedure by the due date.

[Application Eligibility]

Master's Program . . . Application eligibility (1) – (6)

Doctoral Program . . . Application eligibility (1) – (4)

*Persons who meet the application eligibility requirements above are not required to undergo the preliminary screening of application eligibility. Please refer to "Application Procedures" on p. 9 and file the application.

*Since three-year universities (vocational colleges) do not confer a degree equivalent to a bachelor's degree, persons who do not have a background related to the research field (work experience, research history or academic background) are not able to apply for the preliminary screening of application eligibility.

Preliminary Screening of Application Eligibility

Note Applicants for the Master’s Program who have a bachelor's degree and applicants for the Doctoral Program who have a master’s degree are not required to undergo the preliminary screening of application eligibility. Applicants who do not have a bachelor's degree and do not have a background related to the research field for at least one year at the time of admission to this university after graduating from a three-year university are not able to apply for the preliminary screening of application eligibility.

1. What is preliminary screening?

The eligible test score must be from an examination taken within two years prior to the application deadline, and you must submit one “Score Confirmation Report/成績確認書” for a result available by the application deadline. Examination results will be verified with JASSO.

August Entrance Exam: Result from one of the following exams (excluding the writing/記述 section) / the second exam for the 2024 academic year, or the first or second exam for the 2025 academic year
November Entrance Exam: Result from one of the following exams (excluding the writing/記述 section) / the first or second exam for the 2025 academic year, the first exam for the 2026 academic year
February Entrance Exam: Result from one of the following exams (excluding the writing/記述 section) / the second exam for the 2025 academic year, or the first or second exam for the 2026 academic year

*Applicants refer to those who do not hold Japanese nationality and who apply under the general category, mature student category, or international student category.

The following applicants are exempt from submitting a certificate of Japanese language proficiency.

- Applicants for the English Track Curriculum
- Applicants who have graduated (or are expected to graduate) from university or completed (or are expected to complete) a graduate school in Japan

(9) [For foreign national applicants only] A photocopy of both sides of the Residence Card

- It must indicate the status of residence and the period of stay valid until the date of examination.
- The photocopy of both sides of your Residence Card must ensure that all the information on both sides is properly copied without being cut off.

*Please note that if you are currently renewing your Residence Card, you need to submit documents to verify your application number, date of receipt, and applicant's name at the Immigration Services Bureau Agency to prove that you are renewing. Please submit one of the following: the “application receipt form/申請受付票 issued by the Immigration Services Bureau Agency (a photocopy)”, the “application receipt email from the online residence application system” or the “document showing that the Japanese language school applied for proxy (a photocopy acceptable).”

(10) Master's Thesis, Graduation Thesis, Thesis Abstract, etc.

As the items to be submitted depend on your desired course and program, please check them on the “List of Application Documents” on pp. 28-30. Please submit your thesis written in Japanese or English. If the thesis is written in a language other than Japanese or English, please attach an abstract in Japanese (A4 size, 2 pages). These items will not be returned.

(11) Application Document Checklist

Please check that all the application documents (1) – (10) are properly prepared and place this checklist (11) on top of them in the envelope at the time of mailing.

2. Application Fee

Application fee: 35,000 yen

*Please check the application period for the payment period and pay within that period.

- After registering the required information online, please pay the application fee during the application period at a convenience store (7-Eleven, LAWSON, FamilyMart, MINISTOP, Daily YAMAZAKI, or Seicomart), pay through a Pay-easy ATM at a nationwide Japan Post Bank or a bank in Japan, or pay by credit card.
- When paying the application fee, the transaction fees will also be required separately.
- Payment will not be made at the counter of any financial institution, either in Japan or abroad. (Please use a credit card when applying from overseas.) In addition, Toyo University will not accept payment at the counter of the university office.
- When a family member or an acquaintance performs the procedures as a proxy, make certain that information about the applicant is entered.
- Payment at a convenience store is possible at any time during business hours, even on weekends and holidays. However, please note that application through the online application site on the final day of the application period will be until 23:00 (JST).
- Even if payment of the application fee has been completed during the application period, the entrance examination may not be taken if the postmark on the envelope for the application documents is past the final day of the application period.
- Be certain to keep certificates of payment of the application fee (receipts, etc.) by yourself. There is no need to send a certificate of payment or copy of the receipt.
- Once paid, the application fee cannot be refunded under any circumstances. However, in a situation where one of the following conditions 1), 2) or 3) applies, the application fee can be refunded. If you wish to receive a refund, please perform the necessary procedure by the designated due date.
 - 1) If you paid application fee, but did not mail application forms

- 2) In the case you paid application fee and mailed application forms, but your application was not accepted because of the incomplete application documents
- 3) If the university does not allow you to take the examination

For details, see our university website. (<https://www.toyo.ac.jp/academics/gadmissions/return/>)

3. Application Method

- Regarding the steps of the application procedures, click the following URL and carefully read the “Toyo University Graduate School Academic Year 2026/2027 Online Application Guidance/東洋大学大学院 2026/2027 年度インターネット出願ガイドランス.” (<https://www.guide.52school.com/guidance/net-toyo-gs/>)
*Since the online application site is available only in Japanese, please find someone to help you or consult the Admission Section. (mldaig-ad@toyo.jp)
- Send a set of the application documents to Toyo University by “registered express postal mail/書留・速達”(These documents must be sent postmarked on or before the due date.)
- Applications will not be accepted by any means other than by postal mail. Please note that only postal mail from Japan will be accepted.
- Prepare an envelope (a Kaku No. 2 envelope/封筒角 2 号) which you can put application documents (A4 size) without folding and firmly affix the prescribed address label on the front of the envelope. *Please do not use a Letter Pack because the prescribed address label cannot be affixed.
- Before sealing the envelope, use the “Application Document Checklist” to make sure that all the required documents are included.
- Mail the documents after paying the application fee. If the application documents have been mailed but the application fee has not been paid, or if the application fee has been paid but the postmark on the envelope for the application documents is past the final day of the application period, the entrance examination may not be taken.

4. Important Reminders Concerning the Application

- The application documents and the application fee cannot be returned.
- Once you complete the application, you cannot change the graduate school or course (including the program for courses where the programs are clearly indicated), examination subjects (electives), and other items.
- You are not allowed to sit for the entrance examination if not all the required application documents are submitted.
- For persons who make a false statement in the application documents, the admission may be cancelled retroactively even after admission.

5. Examinee's Slip

- You can check your examinee's slip on “My Page” after all applicants' application documents have been screened. The examinee's slip will not be mailed, so please print it out by yourself and be sure to bring it with you on the examination day.
- After your application documents have been screened, you will be notified by email to your registered email address, so please print out your examinee's slip as soon as you receive the email.
- If you are still unable to print out your examinee's slip from “My Page” two days before the examination day, please contact the following.

Toyo University Admission Section

Email: mldaig-ad@toyo.jp / TEL: 03-3945-7272

(Office hours: Mon – Fri: 9:30 – 13:00, 14:00 – 16:45, Sat: 9:30 – 12:45)

Important Reminders Related to Sitting for the Examination

- (1) The examination site is Hakusan Campus (5-28-20 Hakusan, Bunkyo-ku, Tokyo).
- (2) Examination classrooms and other information will be displayed on standing signboards, bulletin boards, etc. inside the school grounds on the examination day. Please arrive early at the examination site to check these.
- (3) Be sure to bring the examinee's slip. The examinee's slip must be presented before the start of the examination. Persons accompanying examinees may not enter the examination classrooms.
- (4) Persons who have lost the examinee's slip are requested to come early to the examination site on the examination day to receive a temporary examinee's slip. Check the location for issuing the temporary examinee's slip with the guide staff near the examination classrooms on the examination day.
- (5) In the examination classroom, please check that the examinee number on the sticker on the desk is the same as the examinee number on the examinee's slip, and take your seat. (Sitting in a seat with a different number from your examinee number may invalidate your examination, so be sure to check the examination number.)
- (6) Please take your seat in the examination classroom 30 minutes before the start of the examination.
Important reminders related to sitting for the examination will be explained.
Example: If the written examination time is from 10:00, the gathering time in the examination classroom is 9:30.
- (7) The examination time varies with desired course and examination category. Please check this on the examination schedule beginning on p. 20
- (8) Persons arriving after the examination starting time will be allowed to sit for the examination only if their arrival at the examination classroom is within 20 minutes of the examination start.
- (9) As there is no parking lot at the examination site, arrival by car, motorbike, etc. is not allowed.
- (10) Please follow all instructions by the proctors in the examination classroom. Any actions that would disturb other examinees are forbidden in examination site and examination classrooms. Examinees who do not follow instructions will be expelled from the room for improper behavior.
- (11) Please prepare dictionaries by yourself for foreign language examination subjects that allow the use of dictionaries. However, only dictionaries in book form may be used. No electronic or other dictionaries are allowed. In addition, dictionaries of specialized vocabulary may not be used.
- (12) Starting times for interviews may be changed depending on the number of applicants. In this case, the change will be noted in writing on the examinee's slip.
- (13) Please prepare lunch for yourself as necessary on the examination day.
- (14) There are no clocks inside the examination classrooms. Please bring a watch (with watch functions only) by yourself. Mobile phones, smartphones, smartwatches and other wearable devices, IC recorders, and other types of electronic devices may not be used in place of watches. Toyo University will not lend watches.
- (15) Writing materials cannot be borrowed. Please be sure to bring them with you when you take a written examination.
- (16) The use of a mobile phone in the examination site and in the interview waiting room is prohibited. Please switch off your devices before entering the building.

In the Event of Transportation Disruptions on the Examination Day

- (1) On the examination day, proceed to the examination site even in the event of transportation disruptions due to the approaching typhoon, snow, or other inclement weather, or due to accident, earthquake, etc. Be aware that Toyo University will not conduct a makeup examination/retest.
- (2) The examination starting time may be delayed only if Toyo University determines that large numbers of examinees will miss the examination starting time due to disruptions in major means of public transportation (excluding bus and car) heading to the examination site.
However, Toyo University will bear no responsibility for accompanying inconvenience, expense, or other personal loss borne by examinees.
For details, see our university website (<https://www.toyo.ac.jp/academics/gadmissions/>), which will be updated with details of measures as they are determined.

Important Reminders Concerning Infectious Diseases for which Suspension of Attendance is Stipulated by the School Health and Safety Act

In the event that the spread of infectious diseases (e.g. influenza, etc.) for which suspension of attendance is stipulated by the School Health and Safety Act has been confirmed, specific measures may be taken with respect to the conducting of entrance examinations, taking into consideration the response of related administrative organs, etc. In addition, in the event that the presence of examinees with untreated infectious diseases has been confirmed, specific measures may be taken with respect to the conducting of entrance examinations, taking into consideration the response of related administrative organs, etc.

In the event that measures are taken with respect to the conducting of examinations, Toyo University will bear no responsibility for accompanying inconvenience, expense, or other personal loss borne by examinees. For details, see our university website (<https://www.toyo.ac.jp/academics/gadmissions/>), which will be updated with details of measures as they are determined.

Requests to All Examinees

- (1) Please prepare your own mask as needed to prevent infection from infectious diseases (e.g. novel coronavirus, influenza virus, etc.) at the examination site.
- (2) When coughing or sneezing, please wear a mask and follow the etiquette for coughing, etc., to avoid infecting surrounding candidates.
- (3) Doors, windows, etc. may be opened during breaks to allow for ventilation with the outside air. When sitting for the examination, please wear clothing that allows you to regulate your body temperature.
- (4) If necessary instructions and measures are taken to prevent the spread of infectious diseases, you will be notified on “My Page” as soon as a decision is made.
- (5) On the day of the examination, applicants will be required to present a photo ID in addition to your examinee's slip for identity verification.

*As a general rule, acceptable forms of photo ID include a driver's license, My Number card, passport, residence card, other identification issued by a public institution, or a student ID card. If you are unable to present any of these, please contact us in advance.

Please note that if you fail to bring and present a photo ID on the examination day, you will not be permitted to take the examination.

Important Reminders during the Examination

1. Handling of the examinee's slip and other personal belongings

- (1) Place the examinee's slip on top of your desk.
- (2) In addition to the examinee's slip, items that can be placed on your desk during the examination are black pencils, mechanical pencils, plastic erasers, pencil sharpeners (Electric sharpeners, large-sized sharpeners, and knives are not allowed), a watch (with watch function only), eyeglasses, and permitted dictionaries. [NOTE] Ballpoint pens may not be used. Put away drinks and food into your bag, etc.
- (3) Plastic sheets, abacuses, calculators, graph paper, rulers, and other tools may not be used.
- (4) Before entering the examination classroom, turn off the alarm setting on any watch that has alarm functions.
- (5) Before entering the examination classroom, turn off the alarm settings on any PCs, mobile phones, smartphones, smartwatches and other wearable devices, IC recorders, and other types of electronic devices, switch off the devices, and place them in your bag, etc. Having these devices in your hand or on your person during the examination without storing them in your bag may be deemed improper behavior. Take note that alarms may sound if alarm settings are not turned off, even if the devices are shut off. If the ringtone, silent-mode vibration, or other sound on mobile phones, smartphones, smartwatches and other wearable devices, etc. inside a bag, etc. sounds during the examination, the proctor may take the bag, etc. out of the classroom without the owner's consent, and store it in the examination headquarters until the end of the examination.
- (6) Earplugs may not be used as they may shut out the instructions of the proctors.
- (7) Please do not wear clothing, etc. on which English letters, maps, sayings, etc. are printed in the examination classroom. Persons wearing such items may be asked to remove them.
- (8) Persons wishing to use handkerchiefs, tissue paper, seat cushions, lap blankets, or eye drops are requested to notify the proctors and gain permission first.
- (9) No electronic devices or materials are allowed in the interview, unless otherwise instructed.

2. Notes concerning answering questions

Sitting for examinations other than designated subjects, etc. is not allowed. In addition, persons who fail to sit for all required subjects, interviews, etc. of the examination category for which application was filed will be disqualified.

3. Leaving the room during the examination

Leaving the room during the examination is not allowed until the examination is finished. In the case of illness, unavoidable restroom use, etc. during the examination, please raise your hand quietly and follow the instructions of the proctors.

However, even if temporarily leaving the room is permitted, corresponding extension of the examination time is not allowed.

4. Instructions by proctors during the examination

Please follow the instructions of the proctors during the examination. Failure to do so may be deemed improper behavior, be disqualified, and leading to expulsion from the room. In this event, Toyo University will not respond to claims for refund of the application fee.

5. Improper behavior

The following actions may constitute improper behavior. Persons engaging in improper behavior will be disqualified and will no longer be able to sit for the examination.

Subjects for which the person already sat for the examination will also be deemed invalid. In this case, Toyo University will not respond to claims for refund of the application fee.

- (1) Cheating (looking at cheat sheets, reference books, dictionaries not allowed, or the answer sheets of other examinees; receiving answers from other persons; etc.)
- (2) Solving answers with the use of plastic sheets, abacuses, calculators, graph paper, rulers, and other tools for which use is prohibited
- (3) Opening the question booklet and beginning to answer questions before instructions to begin the examination
- (4) Holding writing utensils or erasers and continuing to answer questions, without following instructions to end the examination
- (5) Engaging in actions that are advantageous to other examinees during the examination, such as telling others the content of questions or their answers
- (6) Wearing a mobile phone, smartphone, smartwatch and other wearable device, etc. during the examination
- (7) Allowing a mobile phone, smartphone, smartwatch and other wearable device, etc. to sound (ring tone, alarm, vibration, etc.) during the examination
- (8) Any actions that would disturb other examinees in examination sites
- (9) Failure to follow the instructions of the proctors, etc. in the examination site
- (10) Engaging in other actions that would damage the fairness of the examinations
- (11) If improper behavior is observed, we may take measures such as reporting the matter to the police.

6. Other important reminders

- (1) During the examination, proctors will check the faces of examinees. Persons wearing a mask, etc., may be instructed to remove them temporarily for the purpose of confirming their identity.
- (2) No remedies will be taken with respect to everyday noises, etc. during the examination (footsteps of proctors; discussions necessary for the work of proctoring; sounds of aircraft, car, wind, rain, or air conditioning; coughing, sneezing, or sniffing by surrounding examinees; short notification sounds from mobile phones, watches, etc.; chimes from nearby buildings, etc.).
- (3) No consideration will be made for the differences in examination room furnishings/environment (desks, chairs, air-conditioning, etc.).

Announcement of Application Results/Admission Procedures

1. Announcement of Application Results

- (1) Application results can be checked at “Application Results/合否結果” on “My Page/マイページ” on our university website from 11:00 (JST) on the announcement date of application results.
- (2) “A notification of acceptance/合格通知書” can be downloaded from “My Page” and can be printed out if required.
- (3) No inquiries will be received regarding acceptance or non-acceptance.

2. Admission Procedures

Successful applicants are requested to perform the following procedures according to the “Admission Procedure Guide (PDF)” in “My Page” by the designated due date for admission procedures.

- 1) Please pay the tuition and fees.
- 2) Please perform the online admission procedures.

If the above procedures 1) and 2) are not completed by the due date for admission procedures, the applicant will be deemed unwilling to enroll. No admission procedures will be accepted after the due date. See the “Admission Procedure Guide” for details.

- (1) See p. 18 for a breakdown of tuition and fees.
- (2) The admission fee (admission confirmation fee) that has been paid will not be refunded for any reason, as it is a “consideration for obtaining a position that will enable the applicant to enroll in a graduate school and course at Toyo University Graduate Schools for which the applicant was accepted.” Submitted documents will not be returned.

For the information about the admission procedures, please refer to the following:

<https://www.toyo.ac.jp/academics/gadmissions/tetuduki/>

Status of Residence

International students who are accepted for admission to Toyo University can apply for a status of residence of “Student.” Please note that foreign nationals who fail to acquire a valid status of residence by the designated date, may not be admitted to Toyo University. Also note that a status of residence of “Temporary Visitor” does not permit you to enroll at Toyo University. For details, please refer to the following:

https://www.toyo.ac.jp/academics/gadmissions/zairyu_shikaku/

Preliminary Procedure for Professional and Practical Training Benefit

The following course is designated as a professional and practical training benefit system by the Ministry of Health, Labour and Health.

- Graduate School of Economics, Course of Public-Private Partnership (Master’s Program/Standard Program and Professional Intensive Program)

*Please note that the Graduate School of Economics, Course of Public-Private Partnership (Master’s Program/Standard Program only) is currently in the process of applying for re-designation. The results will be announced on the university’s website in early August. (Please be aware that if the program is not designated, you will not be eligible to receive the grant even if you meet the eligibility requirements.)

Regarding “professional and practical training benefit,” you are required to apply for the benefit at Hello Work at least two weeks before the start date of the course, in principle (For students admitted in Fall: by September 2, for students admitted in April: by March 17 of the year of admission).

For details, please refer to the following website of the Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare.

https://www.mhlw.go.jp/stf/seisakunitsuite/bunya/koyou_roudou/jinzaikaihatsu/kyouiku.html

For confirmation of the amount of payment, etc., please refer to the following website of our university.

Long-term Study Plan System

The long-term study plan system allows students to systematically complete the curriculum over a period of time beyond the standard period of study (long-term study period) if it is difficult for them to complete a Master's Program in the standard period of study required for completion (two years) due to various reasons, including employment (work circumstances), childcare, or care for a relative. The long-term study period is three years. Please note that international students are not eligible to apply.

Certain procedures are required before entering graduate school. The application periods for the long-term study plan system are as follows. Please note that the application periods for the long-term study plan system are not necessarily the same as the application periods for the entrance examinations. For more details, please check our official website (<https://www.toyo.ac.jp/academics/gadmissions/long/>).

[Application Period]

Students scheduled to enroll in April	Successful applicants of the entrance examination between April and December	Application period for the entrance examination in February of the respective academic year
	Applicants who take the entrance examination in February and March	Application period for the entrance examination
Students scheduled to enroll in the fall		Application period for the entrance examination in August of the respective academic year

Deferred Payment System for Tuition Fees

In AY 2024, the government established the Deferred Payment System for Tuition Fees for students entering the graduate phase (Master's Program). Under this system, the government pays students' tuition fees for them while they are enrolled in graduate school, and after completing graduate school, the tuition fees are paid back by the students according to their income. To use this system, applicants must meet the necessary requirements, such as household budget standards. Please complete the prescribed procedures at the time of application.

If you withdraw your application after admission, or if your application is not accepted after submission, you will be required to pay the tuition fee by the deadline specified by the university. Please note that if the payment is not confirmed by the deadline, you will be dismissed from the university.

For more details, please check our official website (<https://sites.google.com/toyo.jp/daigakuinjoho/gs-index1/JASSO>).

Toyo University Educational Loan

Toyo University, in corporation with financial institutions, has established the Toyo University Educational Loan program for prospective students that can be used to pay admission fee, tuition, lab fee, etc. It aims to reduce the economic burden on students who have the will to study at Toyo University but for whom admission is difficult due to financial reasons.

Persons who are certain to enroll in Toyo University are eligible for the Education Loan program. Since the Toyo University Educational Loan program is a bank loan, please prepare a reliable repayment plan when applying.
