About Confirmation of Grades
for the Entrance Examinations for the Internal Recommendation Category

Current students who were admitted in AY2013 or later (excluding *1) are not required to submit an academic transcript for confirmation of grades. Please refer to an up-to-date grade report downloaded from ToyoNet-G and check whether you have met application criteria by yourself.

*1 For those who wish to apply for the doctoral program, current students in correspondence courses who were admitted in AY2013 or earlier, current students whose GPA is not mentioned on their grade report due to transferring university, etc.

For current students (the above *1), graduates (Toyo University/Toyo University Graduate Schools) who are required to confirm their grades, please submit the required documents to the Education Affairs Section for Graduate Schools following the steps below. (We also accept submissions by postal mail.) If you do not have an academic transcript on hand, please apply for issuance of an academic transcript online in advance, and follow the procedure for the confirmation of grades after you receive the academic transcript.

We will send the Application Guidelines, etc. by email after confirming whether the application criteria are met.

For submission by postal mail, please send the following documents to the Education Affairs Section for Graduate Schools by Letter Pack Light, prepaid envelope sold at Japanese post office. The period for confirmation of grades for the August Entrance Examination is from June 17th (Tuesday) to July 1st (Tuesday) (must arrive by July 1st), and the application period is from July 4th (Friday) to July 10th (Thursday) (postmarked on or before the due date). Application documents must be accompanied by your academic supervisor's letter of recommendation, so you are advised to go through this procedure as early as possible.
